Have Your Say – Easy Read Version

Saying thank you for good service and
Telling us when you are not happy

Autism East Midlands supports children and adults with autism to help them lead happy and positive lives.

We want you to be happy with the services you get from us.

Everyone deserves to be treated with respect and fairness, so everyone feels safe.
This guide tells you what to do if you want to say thank you for something Autism East Midlands has done which you think is good.

This guide also tells you what to do if you want to complain about something at Autism East Midlands.

Anything you tell us – good or bad – helps us to get better at what we do.
If you are a student at Sutherland House, we want you to learn the skills for the life you want.

We want you to feel safe and supported.

We want you to learn in ways that suit you best with the support you need to reach your goals.

We want you to aim high and be the best you can be.

What happens next?

Your manager will tell you when to expect an answer to your complaint.

We will try to do this within 3 weeks.

When you get an answer to your complaint, you can decide if this is enough or if you are not happy with the answer.
Have Your Say – Easy Read Version

If you are still unhappy you can make your complaint to the Chief Executive of Autism East Midlands, Jane Howson.

It is then her job to deal with your complaint.

She will try to do this within 3 weeks.
If you are happy with the answer, that is fine.

If you are not happy, you can take your complaint to your local authority.

We will make sure you have the right advice and information about this.

If this still does not solve your concern, please contact

The Local Government Ombudsman

Their job includes making sure that places like Autism East Midlands do their job properly.
